Air Canada – Secure Flight Passenger Data Collection

Air Canada has commenced collection of Secure Flight Passenger Data (SFPD) which consists of full name, date of birth and gender for all international flights.

All passengers will now be required to provide SFPD when booking international flights on Air Canada.

Air Canada Offering Bonus Aeroplan Miles Worldwide

Until December 31, 2012, every time customers arrive or depart from any one of the eligible airports below, they will earn up to 1,500 Bonus Aeroplan Miles as follows.

500 Bonus Aeroplan Miles
Canada:
Edmonton, Halifax, Kingston, London, Regina, Saskatoon, Sudbury, Thunder Bay, Timmins, Toronto’s City Airport, Winnipeg

USA:

1,500 Bonus Aeroplan Miles
South America: Bogota, Lima
Europe: Geneva, London, Paris, Zurich
Asia: Hong Kong, Sydney, Tokyo

Air Canada Changes Service to Brussels

Air Canada is no longer offering same-plane service Toronto Montreal – Brussels; however service is offered to/from Montreal.

In addition, Air Canada will increase Montreal – Brussels service from 5 weekly to daily flights between Dec 14 – Jan 2, and, starting February 14, 2013.
Air Canada Offers Up to Triple Aeroplan Miles for Australia

Between December 14, 2012 - January 31, 2013, for each eligible round-trip or 2 one-way flight segments between Toronto or Vancouver - Sydney, Australia, members will earn:

- Double Aeroplan Miles in Economy Class, or
- Triple Aeroplan Miles in Executive First

Registration is required by January 31, 2013 to qualify for this offer.

Change to Air Canada’s Car Seat Policy

Effective immediately, clients travelling on Air Canada with an infant may check-in a car seat free of charge.

This is in addition to their free bag allowance, regardless of destination.

Clients may also take a stroller to the gate to be checked during boarding.

Air Canada’s Non-Stop Tokyo-Calgary Winter Service

In November, and over the course of the winter, Air Canada will continue to offer non-stop service between Calgary and Tokyo, in addition to our service from Vancouver and Toronto.

Air Canada offers the most non-stop service between Canada and Asia, with flights to Hong Kong, Shanghai, Seoul and Beijing.

Secure Flight Data Collection

The TSA has extended its Secure Flight program to cover U.S. overflights, in addition to flights within the U.S. and flights to/from the U.S.

USA overflights, as outlined by the TSA, are all flights that transit the airspace of the 48 continental U.S. states and the 12 nautical miles around their coasts.

Airlines operating these flights are required to collect and transmit Secure Flight Passenger Data (SFPD) which consists of full name; date of birth; and gender 72 hours prior to departure.
WestJet Takes Off to Trinidad & Tobago

WestJet has launched daily, non-stop service between Toronto and Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago.

The inaugural flight from Toronto Pearson International Airport to Port of Spain departed on Nov. 16/12 at 11:30 p.m. EST, and arrived at Port of Spain at 6 a.m.

Enterprise Adds Kiosk Options

Travelers can cut their check-in time in half and hit the road faster, thanks to new self-service car rental kiosks rolling out throughout North America. Alamo Rent A Car and Enterprise Rent-A-Car -- which are owned and operated by Enterprise Holdings -- have implemented fast and convenient touch-screen kiosks in Toronto and Calgary as part of the company's ongoing commitment to providing superior customer service.

The new kiosks enable customers to skip the rental counter and initiate both reserved and walk-up transactions with just a valid driver's license and major credit card. They also allow the customer to review rental information, change car class, add additional drivers and purchase such options as GPS navigation units and child car seats.

Philippine Airlines (PAL) will launch a new service between Manila and Toronto on Nov. 30, giving the carrier a direct link to Canada's largest city and its first gateway on the East Coast of North America in 15 years.

The new service will trigger a revamp of PAL's Canadian operation. From Nov. 30, the current daily service between Manila and Vancouver will be revised to four times weekly from Manila to Vancouver alternating with a three-times-weekly non-stop from Manila to Toronto. On the return journey, Vancouver-Manila will have a dedicated product four times weekly along with a shared service from Toronto three times weekly. Toronto-Manila, therefore, will be a one-stop service via Vancouver.

The Toronto service (PR 118) departs Manila every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday at 3 p.m. Arrival at Terminal 3 of Toronto Pearson International Airport is at 5 p.m. on the same days. The return flight (PR 119) departs Toronto every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday at 7:35 p.m., stopping in Vancouver at 9:30 p.m. The service continues on to Manila at 11:30 p.m. and arrives at Terminal 2 of Ninoy Aquino International Airport at 5:45 a.m. two calendar days later. PAL will field its new, long-range flagship, the Boeing 777-300ER, which seats 42 in Mabuhay Class (business) and 328 in Fiesta Class (economy), on the 17-hour, non-stop flight to Toronto.
Should you have any questions please contact a member of our Management Team at 905-480-9986:

- Lucy La Vigna, Director of Operations - lucyl@travelresources.net
- Selina Johnston, Manager, Client Services - selinaj@travelresources.net